The latest investigations by the U. S. and Canadian Governments show the Royal Baking Powder superior to all others in purity and leavening strength.

Statements by other manufacturers to the contrary have been declared by the official authorities falsifications of the official reports.

To—

Impotent words can never impart
The nobler workings of the heart.
They are but wings of feeble insects,
To wait a thought too weak for flight—
A spark of light which upward flies,
The night seems darker when it dies,
But that in man which nobly springs,
Shall need no light, no gaudy wings,
But, of itself, spontaneous, move
Through ambient space—as such is Love.

Discouragement

When, closed the windows of the soul,
The waves of darkness o'er us roll,
Nor light without, believe we, does exist,
How oft the fault within us lies,
The blindness all within our eyes,
An earth-born cloud, a fondly cherished mist.

Found in the River.

The body of George Clemans, who has been employed as baker at the Institution for Feeble-minded children for some time, was found in the river just below the Arsenal Monday morning. He was in the habit of drinking too much at times and some two weeks ago went on a spree which lasted several days. When nearly sober he was stricken with remorse for his action and told some of his friends he intended taking his own life, gave away his watch and some other property, but no attention was paid to what he said as it was supposed he would be all right in a few days. He disappeared on Wednesday of last week and nothing being heard of him his friend became uneasy and began searching for him when his dead body was found in the river as above stated.

Examination of Teachers.

The examination of applicants to teach in the white common schools of the county will be held at the office of Miss Lucy Pattie, County Superintendent of Common Schools on the first Friday and Saturday in November. The applicants to teach in the colored schools will also be examined at the same place on the second Friday and Saturday in November. Those desiring positions should remember the dates and be on time at the examination.

Their China Wedding.

Mr. David C. Hardin and wife celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their marriage at their home on Cross street Monday evening by receiving their friends from 6 to 8 o'clock. Quite a number of invited guests were present to extend congratulations and wish the bride and groom of twenty years ago many happy returns of the day, and many handsome and useful presents were received by them. The occasion was an exceedingly pleasant one and greatly enjoyed by all who attended. The day was also the fifty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Judge L. Hord and wife, parents of Mrs. Hardin, who were present and enjoyed the evening, being nearly as numerously congratulated as the younger couple upon their long and happy married life and continued good health.

Dyspepsia

Isn't pleasant nor is it necessary. Dr. Hale's Household Tea will cure it. We have a great many testimonials from people who say it has absolutely cured them. It is pleasant to take and cost only 25c and 50c a package at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.

Too Heavy a Charge.

The workmen engaged in removing the foundation of the middle pier of the old St. Clair street bridge put in most too heavy a charge of dynamite Thursday morning in a blast to loosen up the stone, and when it was fired several holes were torn in the floor of the new bridge by flying stones and a large quantity of spalls scattered over the floor. Some limit should be fixed to the amount of explosive to be used in this work, else the new bridge will be ruined or some one killed by flying stones.

Several Cases of Scarlet Fever.

Little Una Wright, daughter of Mr. W. L. Wright, has been confined to the house the past week with a slight case of scarlet fever, and is nearly well, but now Charley, Willie and Leslie, the younger children, all have it, though none of them are seriously ill.

That Joyful Feeling

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old time medicines and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered but never accepted by the well informed.

The Chrysanthemum Show Postponed.

Owing to the unusually dry season many chrysanthemum plants are backward in blooming and the managers of the chrysanthemum show for the benefit of the Industrial School have determined to postpone the exhibition until Wednesday and Thursday, November 14th and 15th, when it will take place in the ball-room of the Capital Hotel. Twenty-five cents admission will be charged, and one-half the receipts at the door will be given in prizes. In addition to these prizes a number of special prizes have been offered, a list of which is given below. No flowers grown by professionals will be admitted, and no entrance fee whatever will be charged. The names of persons wishing to compete should be sent to Mrs. Sam D. Johnson or Miss Fanny Crittenden at once.

Special prizes for growing plants:

For finest and largest pink bloom, cut glass bowl, offered by Sam D. Johnson.

For finest and largest yellow bloom, cut glass vase, offered by John T. Buckley.

For finest and largest white bloom, barrel of cream flour, offered by Joseph LeCompte, of Lexington Roller Mills.

For finest three plants, yellow varieties, handsome silk umbrella, offered by Henderson, Humphries & Cassell.

For finest and largest yellow bloom nearest the color of Hall & Hayward cracker label, 25 pound box of crackers, offered by Mr. Ira Barnett, of Hall & Hayward.

For finest and largest red bloom, ten dollars, offered by a friend of the Industrial School.

Special prizes for cut flowers:

For finest six pink blooms, linen embroidery center piece, offered by Mrs. Charles Hart.

For finest six red blooms, water-color, offered by Robert Burns Wilson.

For finest six blooms, any color, five dollars, offered by a friend of the Industrial School.

In addition to these special prizes, one-half the receipts at the door will be divided into four prizes as follows:

First and second prizes for finest display of cut blooms.

First and second prizes for handsomest six plants of different varieties.

No plant can be entered for more than one prize.

Every amateur flower grower of this section is asked to compete for these prizes.

The ladies in charge of this worthy enterprise request that everyone entering plants will please send them to the office of the Capital Hotel, Tuesday morning, November 13th, and on each plant or cut flowers pin a piece of paper, denoting in which class they are to be entered, and a card bearing the full name of the exhibitor, and saying whether or not they wish them sold, and for what price.

The Industrial School gets ten per cent of the selling price.

The prizes will be awarded Tuesday evening when all the entries are in, but the names of the winners will not be made known until Thursday, when the winning flowers, with the names of the lucky winners, will be exhibited.

All exhibitors will be expected to send for their plants Friday afternoon following the show, else it will be understood that they want them sold for the benefit of the school.

THE NEW F. F. V. LIMITED.

Commencing Sunday, May 13th, the F. F. V. Limited will leave Cincinnati daily at 12:20 noon, arriving at Washington at 7:40 a. m., Baltimore 9:00 a. m., Philadelphia 11:20 a. m. and New York 1:40 p. m. The train will consist of Composite Car, Elegant Day Coach, with Smoking Compartment, Dining Car, Pullman Sleeping Cars of the latest and most improved design, and an Observation Car. Emphasis is especially placed on the Observation Car. Built by the Pullman Company from Chesapeake and Ohio plans, the F. F. V. Observation Cars serve their purpose better than any others that have ever been constructed.

As the F. F. V. Limited is the only train having an Observation Car attached, it necessarily follows that the Chesapeake and Ohio R'y alone has scenery interesting enough to demand an Observation Car. The F. F. V. Limited is the only train running through from Cincinnati to New York that enables the business men to transact business in Cincinnati one day and New York the next. It is the only train for Jersey City Coast resorts, which are reached by the F. F. V. at dinner time instead of in the evening. It is the only train that enables business men to transact business in Cincinnati one day and reach Washington for breakfast the next morning. It is the most desirable train for New England resorts, connections being made in the Union Depot in Washington with the Colonial Express running through to Boston which reaches New Haven 4:10 p. m., New London 5:30 p. m., Providence 7:15 p. m. and Boston 8:30 p. m. The F. F. V. is the only modern train lighted throughout with electricity, carrying a Dining Car and an Observation Car.

The Washington and Atlantic Express, also an Electric Lighted Vestibuled train, will leave Cincinnati at 7:00 p. m., reaching Washington 2:40 p. m. and Old Point Comfort 6:00 p. m. Connection is made at Washington with the Boston Express or the Limited, reaching New York about 9:00 p. m. At Norfolk connection is made with the Old Dominion Steamship Line, reaching New York 3:00 p. m. the next day.

Going to Fix That Sewer.

The Health Board have ordered the old rock sewer, which runs from Shelby street down New street into the main sewer on Steele, and which is only a short distance under ground and without proper traps, to be taken up and replaced with a sewer pipe of proper dimensions to carry off the discharge into it. If this had been done some time ago numerous cases of diphtheria in that end of town might have been prevented.

Mr. S. W. Keller, of Carlisle, brother of Dr. H. M. Keller, of this city, is here with a new apparatus for cleaning and purifying cisterns and wells, without the loss of the water. SPECIAL POLICE

To Enforce the Quarantine.

The Health Board, at a meeting Thursday afternoon, recommended that a sufficient number of special policemen be appointed to enforce the quarantine regulations adopted to prevent the further spread of diphtheria and other infectious diseases, and the City Council, the same evening, agreed to the recommendation and directed the Chief of Police to appoint the special policemen and put them on duty at once. It is the duty of these officers to see that no children enter or leave houses in the infected district where cases of diphtheria or scarlet fever are known to have existed until danger of their spreading these diseases no longer exists. The new men went on duty yesterday morning.

Work of the Fish Commission.

This had been a bad year for the United States fish commission, owing to the heat and drought of the summer. For that, however, it has planted on the coasts and in the interior of this country no less than 600,000,000 young fish. Of these 100,000,000 were shad and another 100,000,000 were whitefish. The increase in the quantity as well as the excellent quality of shad has been noted in the markets in the past few years. It is to be hoped that the price will soon become such that the shad season will mean satisfaction to the poor as to the well to do.

The delicate whitefish of the northern lakes is not, however, increasing in numbers, in spite of the pains taken by the fish commission to stock the waters which are its haunts. The whitefish supplies the whole vast interior of the country with its best water food. The demand is increasing rapidly, and the facilities for catching whitefish have increased in proportion. Redoubled exertions will be necessary on the part of both state and national hatcheries to keep up the supply of whitefish.

Tough on the Milkman.

In England they have screwed the milkman down to the point where it is easier to be honest than to cheat. A quart milk bottle has been devised with a graduated scale blown into the glass, with the words "average," "good" and "very good." Cream will rise on top of the milk to one or another of these words. Thus the customer will at least know whether he has got his due quantity and whether the milkman is giving him skimmilk or watered milk.

THE DIPHTHERIA.

New Cases But Not Spreading.

Some six or eight new cases of diphtheria have been reported to the Health Board this week, but they are all confined to homes where other members of the family have had the disease, every case is reported to be a mild one and the patients doing well. On the whole the situation is more hopeful, but the scare has paralyzed business of all kinds, and our neighboring town of Versailles has quarantined against us.

Julia Marlowe Taber.

Since the first appearance of Miss Julia Marlowe at the Opera House in this city several years ago, that charming actress has been established in the hearts of our theatre-goers as their greatest favorite, and it was a source of great disappointment that, coming so near as Louisville, she failed to make a date here this season. Quite a number of people from this city have been to Louisville to see her this week and among the number the writer counts himself fortunate to be included. The competent critics of the Louisville papers have discussed, more aptly than we can hope to do, her various performances; but there is one thing which we can add (knowing from experience), that none of them have said, and that is that so true to nature are her portrayals that a deaf man has no difficulty in keeping up with her part in a comedy which he has never read.

In all her performances which we have witnessed heretofore, Miss Marlowe has selected Shakespearian plays for production, and we were so familiar with their text as to have had but little inconvenience in any event. We had, however, absolutely no knowledge of "The Love Chase," could scarcely hear a word that was said; and yet her gestures, expression and action were so perfectly natural, so entirely suited to her part, that we scarcely felt the need of the missing sense.

The captious metropolitans, in lamenting the gradual disappearance from the stage of those fine old tragedies and comedies which so deservedly go by the name of legitimate, have taken occasion to add that it is as much due to the lack of artists of sufficient merit to do them justice as to any other reason. To refute this statement in its entirety may be somewhat difficult, but no one who has seen Miss Marlowe will agree that the plays in her repertoire were ever better presented by any actress on the American stage.

Since her last appearance here, which was some little time previous to her long illness, Miss Marlowe has taken on a slight plumpness which made her seem at first sight almost like a stranger to one whose recollection of her painted a fragile, sylph-like figure, more spirit than body. But, as the play progressed, she was seen to have added charm with the added years, and pleasant as are our memories of her as she was, we would not have her otherwise than she is. As one whose pen speaks better than ours can ever do has said, "we do not care to measure by other standards the perfection that is a standard itself." W.

She Alone is Responsible.

A young woman has solved the kissing problem. Here's what she says: "It is thoughtlessly said that man kisses woman, but it is not so. It may be set down as a principle or dogma that it is always the woman who kisses the man. On such occasions man acts only in a responsive and not in an initiative capacity. To produce a kiss only two things are necessary, and man, except by his mere presence, has nothing to do with its origin. The first circumstance is the opportunity, and the second is the desire existing, though unexpressed, in the woman's own heart and mind to be kissed. When these conditions are present, there is sure to be some kissing, for the woman will in a dozen ways that cannot be defined convey the idea to the man, and he, if he be not altogether a stick, will respond to her will. Therefore, in all the cases of true kissing, it is the woman who kisses, and not the man, who simply responds to a power and influence that he cannot resist. That power lies in a woman, and if it is not present there will not be any kissing."

How to Become Fleshly.

Dr. Miles Nervine not only cures all nervous diseases, headache, blues, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, neuralgia, St. Vitus' dance, fits and hysteria, but also builds up the body. "I am pleased to say that after years of intense suffering with nervous disease, headache and prostration, I tried Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and in two weeks gained eight pounds in weight. I could not lie down to sleep, but now sleep perfectly easy, and am still improving wonderfully. Cannot say enough for the Nervine—Mrs. L. B. MILLARD, Dunkirk, N. Y." "One customer used Nervine and gained fifteen pounds in flesh, says BROWN & MAYNOR, Corland, N. Y." Trial bottles and elegant book free at J. W. Gayles.

FRANKFORT, OCTOBER 27, 1894.

Council Proceedings.

REGULAR MEETING, Oct. 23, 1894.

At the regular meeting of the city council Tuesday night all the members were present except Councilman Pratt.

Mayor Julian vetoed the ordinance prohibiting ex-convicts, without means of support, from becoming residents of Frankfort, on the ground that the council had no right to pass such an ordinance. The veto was sustained unanimously.

Petition from residents of Short street, asking for gas lights and water plug, was presented, and referred.

The Finance Committee reported that the assessment of the Mason-Foard Co., for 1885-87-88 at $45,000 was correct. Report approved.

The Street Railway Co. was released from a bond given for the proper construction of said railway.

An ordinance to provide against injury to life or damage to property resulting from the operation of stationary engines or steam generating apparatus by incompetent engineers and providing for an inspector of engines, was given its first passage.

The Street Railway Co. was requested to make a report of each month's gross earnings up to date and file it with the city clerk.

The matter of catch-basins for sewer openings on Shelby street, in South Frankfort, was referred to Street Committee.

An Error.

In our notice last week of the marriage of Miss Lula Thompson, of Paris, who is well known here, and Mr. Roe Stocton, of Maysville, we stated upon the authority of a Cincinnati paper that the groom attempted suicide shortly after the wedding. It now turns out the would be suicide was an entirely different party and that Mr. Stocton and bride had returned to Maysville before the other party attempted to take his life.

May Build at Once.

Messrs. J. W. and R. C. Nicol are making arrangements to commence the erection of a handsome two-story brick building upon the lot on St. Clair street, next to Mr. John R. Todd's new building, to supply the place of the frame building, lately destroyed by fire. The house will contain two storerooms with offices or flats above.

"1896."

Hettie Bernard Chase and her fine city company of comedians, vocalists and dancers will be at the Capital Theatre on Tuesday night, October 30th. The play "1896" is a farce comedy in 3 acts, by Charles W. Chase, and is bubbling over with music, pathos, mirth and song, bright, clean, crisp comedy and wit. Miss Chase comes highly recommended by the papers from all over the United States and Canada. Hettie Bernard Chase is an excellent banjo player, claiming the title of being the best lady banjoist in the world, and will produce her banjo solos and original songs that have helped to make her famous. Many bright specialties are introduced by other members of the company, making "1896" the comedy event of the season. The play is guaranteed to be the cleanest and brightest farce comedy ever produced. All laughter. No tears. No lady could fail to see "1896" and the bright particular star, Hettie Bernard Chase.

Life or Death?

It is of vital importance that it should be understood by persons whose kidneys are inactive, that this condition of things is finally indicative of a state of the organs where life hangs in a balance. Bright's diseases, diabetes, abundance are all diseases of a very obstinate character in their mature stage, and all have a fatal tendency. They often baffie the most practiced medical skill, and the most approved remedies of material medicine. But opposed at outset—that is to say, when the kidneys begin to discharge their functions ineffectively—with Bossier's Stomach Bitters, the dangerous tendency is checked. Very useful, also, is this household medicine for those ailments of the common occurrence—constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia and nervousness. It is a safeguard against malaria and averts chronic rheumatism.

Lost Two Fingers.

A young negro man by the name of Andy Bryant, who lives near Blakemore's distillery in the Fawcett neighborhood, was attempting to remove a loaded shell from a breech loading shot-gun Monday morning when the gun was discharged, tearing off the two first fingers of his left hand and badly maiming the third. He was brought to this city where he received surgical attention.

A High Kicker.

Mr. D. B. Walcutt was driving a young horse to his buggy Sunday and in crossing the St. Clair street bridge the animal began to kick, turning the vehicle over near the south end of the bridge and throwing Mr. Walcutt out. He was dragged some distance but held on to the lines and prevented the horse from running.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale: Dr. King's New Discovery, for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed. Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Smeklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world. FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, OCTOBER 27, 1894.

Cause of the Low Price of Wheat.

(From the Indiana Farmer.)
Editor Indiana Farmer:

Much has been said of late through the press upon the subject of the low price of wheat and its causes. All have agreed on one point, and that is that the price is low, and here they divide. I am aware that the farmers in the past often regarded the millers as their enemies, but I will attempt to show briefly why the interests of farmer and miller are identical, and that by reason of the feeling mentioned, the causes of low priced wheat, have not been removed.

First, the miller is the best customer the farmer has, and is always in the market and always pays the market price for the wheat. The market is not made by the miller, but is practically made by the Liverpool operator. Except during the first month or two at the beginning of each crop year, the millers take the bulk of the wheat brought to the market. During the first two months the movement is very heavy and much is exported, but after this little goes for export from localities where there are mills. Remove the milling industry from our country and our wheat must go abroad and come in competition with the poor and cheap wheats of Europe and India. Not only is this true, but the offal is lost to our farmers. The foreign miller will not use American wheat until it comes down in price to the poor wheat of Europe and India, but the American flour could be placed in every market in the world, because of its superiority, if not shut out by prohibitory foreign tariffs. In talking with a gentleman from Holland, not long since, he said, in answer to my query as to how much American wheat their native quill ground, "They do not grind any, because they can get Indian and European wheat so much cheaper. They are anxious to use your fine American wheat, but can't pay the price and compete in the market with their flour. Of course their flour is much inferior to your American article, and they realize the fact, but can't remedy the defect. I think they realize that your millers will eventually ruin their business, and therefore they are asking for a duty on American flour." He simply gave the situation the world over. The foreign miller will only take our wheat when it is either sold at the low price realized for poor foreign wheat, or when the crop is short, and they must have it. On account of better wheat and better facilities and having attained a higher degree of art in manufacture, the American miller can produce the best flour in the world. The market is at present narrowed by the maintenance of prohibitory tariff duties by certain foreign countries. If these countries would take American wheat and pay a relatively higher price for it than for the poor quality of the European wheat, then the farmers' interest in the subject might not be quite so great, but the facts are not such. The millers of this country, through the Winter Wheat Millers' League, an organization formed for the exclusive purpose of extending the markets of American flour, have asked Congress to enact retaliatory laws whereby the luxuries, purchased only by our rich, coming from the countries maintaining high tariff duties against American flour, might be charged a double duty until they are willing by reciprocal treaties to allow our flour to enter their markets on a more equitable basis. Notwithstanding the fact that every barrel of flour exported represents 4 1/2 bushels of wheat, Congress at its last session refused this request and passed a bill in which many of these luxuries were placed on even a lower rate of duty. The millers further asked that the reciprocity feature of the then existing tariff law be allowed to remain in force. This was also disregarded, and as a result Spain has abrogated her reciprocity treaty with the United States as to Cuba, and Brazil has given notice that her treaty will be abrogated January 1st, next. To Cuba, the mills of this country shipped last year nearly 900,000 barrels of flour, where scarcely any had been shipped before the treaty was effected. The amount shipped to Cuba last year exceeded the amount shipped the previous year by 80,000 barrels. To Brazil was exported 920,000 barrels, an increase over the year before of 100,000 barrels. Spain has already advanced her tariff duty on our flour going to Cuba from $1.00 per barrel to $4.75, or 75 cents higher than from any other country. Brazil will restore her old duty which was equal to a prohibition. The mills have thus lost a market which would have taken this year over 2,000,000 barrels of flour. Figuring this at 4 1/2 bushels to the barrel, we find a loss to the American farmer of a market for fully 9,000,000 bushels of wheat. Further than this, the flour shipped to those markets was all made from winter wheat, no spring wheat flour going there. It is a well-known fact that neither of these countries have flour mills, so that a market is absolutely lost to the winter wheat farmer for that much wheat. In face of these facts, is it any wonder that wheat remains at the present low price? Congressmen should be committed to extend the markets for American flour. That the surplus wheat we have can be worked off best through the mill is self-evident from facts given above. Therefore, it seems as if the farmers should be with the miller on such a proposition.

Dr. Price's Baking Powder

California, empire of the Pacific, salutes the world. Her Midwinter Fair closed in a midsummer blaze of glory. Second only to the Columbian Exposition in extent, variety and splendor, the coast display was a veritable triumph. Out of her abundance the state poured her treasures—and the nations of the earth came to aid her in her noble exhibition.

Memorable were the exhibits—of gold and silver, of wheat and oil, of fruit and wine, of silk and wool—of all that man and nature could combine to produce. And no exhibit attracted more attention or excited warmer approval than that of

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

Official tests showed it to be highest in leavening power, purest in quality, and most efficient in results of all baking powders made. Accordingly, the Highest Award and Gold Medal were conferred on Dr. Price's at the Midwinter Fair.

The triumph at San Francisco confirms the victory at Chicago. The Midwinter Fair verdict sustains and vindicates the bestowal of highest honors on Dr. Price's by the jury of awards at the World's Columbian Exposition.

Miss Bohon made many friends in this city during her visits to her cousin, Miss Lizzie Hudson, who will wish her a long and happy life with the partner of her choice.

McEWAN-HARTFORD—Mr. Jas. McEwan, formerly of this city, but now of St. Louis, Mo., and Miss Belle Hartford, of Shelby county, were married Tuesday morning in Louisville by Rev. J. M. Weaver. The young people had been sweethearts for a long time, but the parents of the bride opposed their marrying for several months so an elopement was arranged. Mr. McEwan left this city on the early train Monday and met his bride-to-be on the Shelbyville train bound for Louisville and accompanied her to that city, where the ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning at the residence of the officiating minister. The happy young people left that evening for St. Louis, where the groom is engaged as traveling man for a rubber goods house. Jimmie's many friends

Here's to you, Jack, old friend, wishing you all the joy imaginable.

Mr. Chas. S. Jeannin and Miss Nellie L. Landes.

Deaths.

BROCK—In Bellepoint, Friday morning, October 26, 1894, to Mr. James Brock and wife, a daughter—Carrie Elizabeth.

BROWN—Miss Susan Brown, second daughter of Gov. John Young Brown, died Saturday morning at the Executive Mansion, after an illness of many months with consumption, aged 23 years. The remains were taken to the home of the family at Henderon Monday for interment. Miss Brown was greatly beloved by those who knew her best and has left to sorrowing friends the memory of a life filled with deeds of benevolence and Christian charity.

EGBERT—Nellie, the little four-year-old daughter of Mr. Frank Egbert and wife died at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon, and at 6:30 in the evening Frank, their little baby boy, also passed away, both dying from diphtheria. The home of these heart-broken parents was thus rendered desolate in less than two hours and they are crushed under the weight of their great sorrow.

SAFFELL—Mary Martha, daughter of Mr. W. S. Saffell and wife, who had been a sufferer from that dread disease diphtheria for several weeks, died Monday morning at 6 o'clock. Mary was a bright and interesting child, 13 years of age, and her death is a great blow to her parents, who have the warmest sympathy of a large circle of friends.

STANTON—Mrs. Asenath T. Stanton died Monday at the home of her son, Mr. Richard T. Stanton, in Carrollton, aged 83 years. The deceased was the mother of Maj. Henry T. Stanton, of this city.

STUMP—Mrs. Bettie Stump died at her home in this county, near Hutton, on Wednesday, aged 53 years. Her funeral took place Thursday.

TICHER—Mrs. James Tichner died at the home of her husband in the Cedar Run neighborhood Monday morning after an illness of several weeks with typhoid fever. Her daughter died with the same disease several weeks ago and Mr. Tichner has been confined to bed with it for several weeks but is improving. The family have indeed been greatly afflicted and are in a pitiable condition. Mrs. Tichner having left six small children to the care of the father, whose life still hangs in the balance.

Mary Martha Saffell.

The death of this dear child at the home of her parents, on Logan street, last Monday, calls for more than a mere passing notice. Though she had seen but thirteen summers pass by, already had the graces of a lovely womanhood begun to adorn her brow. Fair and beautiful in form and feature, little and graceful as the young fawn, you were still more attracted, as she came and went, by the native sweetness and beauty of her soul. The brightness of her smile, the music of her voice, the gentleness of her acts, told you that there was one of the rare spirits of earth. She loved the good and hated the bad as instinctively as she breathed. Natural and human as her childhood was, heaven seemed to lie about her and the angels to be calling her. Not long could such as she be spared from the native realm. And though her going means desolation to the stricken home of which she was the light and joy, in life's early forenoon she unfolds the wings of her immortality and, like the birds of autumn, flies away.

"She is not dead—the child of our affection—
But gone into that school
Where she no longer needs our poor protection,
And Christ himself doth rule.

"Day after day we think what she is doing
In those bright realms of air;
Year after year her tender step pursuing,
Belold her grown more fair.

"Thus do we walk with her, and keep unbroken
The bond which nature gives,
Thinking that our remembrance, though unspoken,
May reach her where she lives.

"And though, at times, impetuous with passion,
And anguish long suppressed,
The swelling heart heaves moaning like the ocean,
That cannot be at rest,—

"We will be patient, and assuage the swelling,
We may not wholly stay;
By silence sanctifying, not concealing,
The grief that must have way."

HUGGED ON THE HIGHWAY.

A Scoundrel's Assault Upon a Young Lady.

We learn from persons who came in on the Kentucky Midland train at noon yesterday, that Miss Ella Kimbrough, a young lady about eighteen years of age who lives near Oxford, in Scott county, was driving into Georgetown yesterday morning in a buggy alone, and when about two miles from the latter place she passed a young white man by the name of Charles Morgan on the road. After the buggy passed him Morgan ran and climbed into the vehicle from the rear, put his arm around her and attempted to take improper liberties with the young lady, who screamed for help, when the scoundrel jumped out of the vehicle and ran, but was afterwards captured and lodged in jail at Georgetown. There was some talk yesterday afternoon about taking him from jail and hanging him, but the more cool-headed citizens discouraged it.

TO REMEMBER THE SABBATH DAY.

The Christian People of the City Agree to a Better Observance of Sunday in the Future.

The following paper was drawn up, signed by the pastors of all the churches in the city, both white and colored, and submitted to the several congregations at the morning service on Sunday. After the paper was read the vote of each congregation was taken and was practically unanimous, not a vote in any of the churches being cast against it:

To the members of Churches and congregations and all philanthropists of the city of Frankfort:

Our Lord has taught us in his gospel that "the Sabbath was made for man." It is one of heaven's most beneficent institutions for the physical, mental and spiritual well-being of the race. It belongs to man as man, and no one has the moral right unnecessarily to deprive any other one of its rest, its privileges, its blessings.

Owing to the thoughtlessness on the part of many and want of forearrangement, certain classes of our people, especially grocers, confectioners, butchers and druggists are required to be at their places of business on the Lord's day, in violation of the laws of both God and man.

Many of these men want their habits of the community to keep their shops and stores open. It is a moral wrong inflicted on these people by the public. It is robbing them of one of their most sacred and inalienable rights.

This is an evil which ought to be remedied, an which, we believe, can be remedied by a little practical consideration. Let all supplies needed for the Sabbath be ordered so as to be delivered on Saturday night. This can be done. It has been done and is being done in other cities with many times over the population of our city. We think it is only necessary to ask our people to act in unanimity in this matter, and it will be done here, and with but little inconvenience to any one.

Therefore, we, the ministers and pastors of this city, without exception, would earnestly call upon all the members of our churches, and all lovers of man, to so adjust their domestic arrangements that they may henceforth be no need of going or sending to any store on the Lord's day.

Upon a manifestation of willingness on the part of the churches to co-operate in this matter, a committee will call upon our grocers, confectioners, butchers and druggists, to make uniform arrangements and due publication will be made of their completion, so that all may adjust their household affairs to carry out the same.

In testimony of our most hearty co-operation in this matter we all hereto affix our names.

OPENLY VIOLATING THE LAW

In Catching Fish by the Wagon Load.

We are informed that an interloper from parts unknown has located his shanty-boat at or near the mouth of Flat Creek and is openly violating the fish law. He is fishing with a set net and catching fish in such quantities as to be able to send two wagon loads to this city this week, where they were sold right under the noses of the officers of the law. Where is the Sheriff, Constable or other officer charged with the enforcement of the fish law that this man is not looked after? The Fish and Game Club should wake up and have this fellow prosecuted.

The Ballot in Belgium.

It is a unique ballot law, the new one under which the people of Belgium lately voted for the first time. Voting is compulsory, and voters are divided into three classes. It made many of the citizens very angry when they found they had to vote whether they wanted to or not. The lowest class of the three voters, those who have only one vote apiece, consists of all men 25 years old and over who have lived in one election district a year or more. The second class is composed of persons who have two votes apiece, and to this belong married men who pay personal taxes to the amount of $1. The third class of voters have three ballots each. To this class belong the educated people and large property owners. All the priests in Belgium come under the head of the third class, and there are 10,000 of them. Consequently the priests of Belgium must have a voting force of 30,000. At the late election the Clerical party made large gains.

Naturally it would do so. Somehow this law has a queer look to the independent American voter.

MRS. WALTER R. FRANKLIN.

To the Voters of Franklin County.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 1894.

Yielding to the flattering and earnest solicitation of partial friends and representative citizens of all political faiths, I have, contrary to my purpose to never again stand for office, determined to make the race for County Judge at the November election, 1894. This is the most important office in the county government. In the hands of the County Judge are placed the liberties of the citizens in criminal trials before examining court, as also the moneyed interests of a large class of debtors and creditors, litigating matters of account in the quarterly court, besides the settlement and oversight of the estates of widows and orphans.

The taxing interests of the citizens is in the hands of the County Judge and the Magistrates.

So it will be seen that your County Judge wields a large influence in county affairs. No more taxes should be laid than are absolutely necessary to meet the bonded indebtedness at its maturity and the annual accruing interest thereon, together with the necessary amount to conduct the county government upon economic, honest business principles. A part of the bonded debt should be met by the next generation, as they are to be equally benefited by it.

It is local taxation and the distribution of the funds derived therefrom that comes home directly to the county and city taxpayer, for it must be met and is felt in proportion to the ability to meet it. Therefore, it is the right of the citizen to demand of his county court the lowest per cent. of tax each year consistent with an economic, honest and impartial government, and to have this tax promptly collected, and honestly and fairly applied to the good of the entire county.

The good people of my native city and county have honored me time and again by electing me to different and important offices. My election for four successive terms to the office which I am soon to voluntarily surrender, while evidencing the partiality and most generous favor of my personal as well as political following, is an earnest of my faithful, impartial and successful discharge of duty in the past, and must be my guarantee for the future.

I have in no sense sought this office, and if I am elected to it I must be elected by the uncorrupted vote of the people, as I will not bring to bear any corrupting influences to obtain it. At the proper time I will visit the precincts of the county.

Respectfully,
W. H. SNEED.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purpose for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passed but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain or burn or scald promptly relieved. The sore throat healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which, however cured in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor's bill. Proves a 50-cent bottle at once and you will never regret it.
